

HOUSE No. 938

By Mr. Festa of Melrose, petition of Michael E. Festa and David Paul Linsky for legislation to reform criminal sentencing guidelines. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand and Five.

AN ACT REFORMING CRIMINAL SENTENCING GUIDELINES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

CRIMINAL SENTENCING REFORM ACT

1 SECTION 1. The General Laws, as appearing in the 2002 Official 2 Edition, are hereby amended by inserting after chapter 211F the 3 following chapter:—

4 CHAPTER 211G.
5 SENTENCING GUIDELINES.

6 Section 1. Definitions. As used in this chapter the following 7 words shall have the following meanings:—

8 “Adjudication of delinquency”, a determination or finding pur-
9 suant to section 58 of chapter 119 that a juvenile is a delinquent 10 child.

11 “Continuance without a finding”, a disposition pursuant to sec-12 tion 18 of chapter 278, following a guilty plea or an admission to 13 sufficient facts to warrant a finding of guilty, that continues a case 14 without a finding of guilt to a specific date to be dismissed if the 15 defendant adheres to the conditions of the continuance.

16 “Conviction”, a finding or verdict of guilt for a criminal offense 17 or an adjudication as a youthful offender pursuant to section 58 of 18 chapter 119.

19 “Criminal history group”, the classification of an offender’s pre-20 vious record of predicate offenses as set forth on the horizontal axis 21 of the sentencing guidelines grid.

22 “Departure from the guidelines”, a sentence imposed outside the 23 sentencing range contained in the applicable grid cell for the partic-24 ular offense.

25 “Governing offense”, the offense having the highest offense seri-26 ousness level among multiple offenses arising out of the same crim-27 inal conduct.

28 “Grid cell”, the intersection on the sentencing guidelines grid 29 between the offense seriousness level and the criminal history group.

30 “Intermediate sanction”, a nonincarcerative sentence, or portion 31 thereof, which includes a level of restriction, such as standard proba-32 tion, intensive supervision probation, community service, home con-33 finement, and day reporting, and which may be coupled with 34 components, such as residential programming, substance abuse treat-35 ment, restitution, continuing education, vocational training, special 36 education, and psychological counseling.

37 “Mandatory minimum sentence”, the provision of a criminal 38 penalty for a particular offense which specifies the minimum term of 39 incarceration and prohibits suspension of any sentence, placement 40 on file, continuance without a finding, probation, or release on 41 parole until the minimum term of imprisonment has been served.

42 “Master crime list”, the list in which offenses in Massachusetts 43 currently punishable by a term of imprisonment are ranked for pur-44 poses of the sentencing guidelines.

45 “Offense seriousness levels”, the categories for ranking criminal 46 offenses as set forth in the master crime list and on the vertical axis 47 of the sentencing guidelines grid.

48 “Post-incarceration supervision”, a period of parole supervision to 49 commence upon a prisoner’s release from a sentence of imprison-50 ment where the prisoner has served the full sentence within a correc-51 tional facility.

52 “Predicate offense”, a conviction, an adjudication as a youthful 53 offender, a continuance without a finding of an adult felony offense 54 or of a youthful offender offense, or an adjudication of delinquency 55 for classifications in offense seriousness levels 5 through 9 inclusive, 56 which are used to determine a person’s criminal history group.

57 “Same criminal conduct”, any 2 or more offenses committed 58 during a single criminal incident.

59 “Sentencing commission”, the Massachusetts sentencing commis-
60 sion as defined in section 1 of chapter 211E.

61 “Sentencing event”, an appearance before a court of competent 62 jurisdiction during which sentence is imposed for 1 or more convic-63 tions or adjudications of delinquency.

64 “Sentencing guidelines”, all provisions set forth in this chapter 65 which direct or guide judges in sentencing.

66 “Sentencing guidelines grid”, the sentencing matrix, with offenses 67 classified on a vertical axis and criminal history groups classified on 68 a horizontal axis, and which contains a sentencing guidelines range 69 within each grid cell.

70 “Sentencing guidelines range”, the range of any sentence, 71 including the range of intermediate sanctions, which may be 72 imposed in each grid cell without constituting a departure from the 73 sentencing guidelines.

74 “Split sentence”, a sentence to a house of correction which is sus-
75 pended in part and includes a specified period of incarceration fol-76 lowed by a specified period of probation or intermediate sanction 77 or both.

78 “Staircased offense”, a criminal offense which is ranked in more 79 than 1 offense seriousness level on the basis of the existence of a 80 specified factor.

81 “Statutory minimum sentence”, the provision of a criminal 82 penalty for a particular offense which does not require the imposi-
83 tion of incarceration, but specifies the minimum term of incarcera-84 tion, when incarceration is imposed.

85 Section 2. There are established sentencing guidelines in the form 86 of a sentencing guidelines grid with offenses classified on the ver-87 tical axis according to seriousness and criminal history classified on 88 the horizontal axis according to severity. Within each grid cell there 89 is a sentencing guidelines range, consistent. The sentencing guide-90 lines grid includes 3 sentencing guidelines zones:— (1) an incarcera-91 tion zone, where only a sentence to incarceration is within the 92 sentencing guidelines range and a sentence to an intermediate sanc-
93 tion constitutes a departure from the sentencing guidelines; (2) a dis-94 cretionary zone, where either a sentence to incarceration or a
95 sentence to an intermediate sanction are within the sentencing guide-96 lines range; and (3) an intermediate sanction zone, where only a sen-
97 tence to an intermediate sanction is within the sentencing guidelines 98 range and a sentence to incarceration constitutes a departure from 99 the sentencing guidelines. The following sentencing guidelines grid 100 shall be used as a basis for sentencing for convictions of all applic-101 able offenses for which incarceration is a possible sanction under 102 existing statutes, except for those offenses with mandatory minimum 103 sentences.

104 Section 3. The sentencing guidelines grid applies to all offenses 105 except those with mandatory minimum sentences. All offenses on 106 the master crime list are ranked according to seriousness. The 107 offense seriousness level represents the level to which a predicate 108 offense is to be assigned for purposes of determining the criminal his-109 tory group. Where an offense is not found in the master crime list 110 and does not provide for a mandatory minimum sentence, the judge 111 shall impose an appropriate sentence as consistent with the sen-
112 tencing guidelines for similar offenses, as may be, having due regard 113 for the purposes of sentencing set forth in section 2 of chapter 211E.

114 The master crime list follows:

115 Section 4. (a) Certain offenses, broadly defined to encompass a 116 wide range of behavior, are placed at more than one offense seri-
117 ousness level in the master crime list. These offenses are identi-118 fied by a stircased notation on the master crime list based on the 119 following considerations:—

120 (1) Voluntary manslaughter is a level 8 offense. Involuntary 121 manslaughter is a level 6 offense. Manslaughter in violation of the 122 second sentence of section 13 Chapter 265 is a level 8 offense.

123 (2) Assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon in vio-
124 lation of section 15A of chapter 265 is ranked according to the 125 degree of injury to the victim as follows:—

126 (i) Assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon is a 127 level 6 offense where there is serious bodily injury as defined in 128 section 15A of chapter 265.

129 (ii) Assault and battery by means of a dangerous weapon is a 130 level 5 offense where there is no serious bodily injury as so 131 defined is a level 4 offense.

132 (3) Armed robbery in violation of section 17 of chapter 265 is a
133 level 7 offense where there is a display of a gun. Any other violation 134 of section 17 of chapter 265 is a level 6 offense with the exception of 135 certain violations of said section 17 of said chapter 265 that are sub-136 ject to the provisions of subsection (b) of section 4.

137 (4) Breaking and entering in violation of sections 16 to 18, 138 inclusive, of chapter 266 is a level 6 offense where the breaking 139 and entering involves a dwelling and the offender is armed.
140 Breaking and entering is a level 5 offense where the crime 141 involves a dwelling and the offender is not armed, or where the 142 crime does not involve a dwelling and the offender is armed.
143 Breaking and entering a level 3 offense where the crime does not 144 involve a dwelling and the offender is not armed. Misdemeanor
145 breaking and entering, section 16A of chapter 266, is a level 2
146 offense.

147 (5) Certain property offenses are ranked according to the value
148 of property lost or destroyed as follows:—

149 (i) Where the value of the property lost or destroyed is 150 $250,000 or more, the offense is a level 6 offense.

151 (ii) Where the value of the property lost or destroyed is 152 between $50,000 and $250,000 the offense is a level 5 offense.

153 (iii) Where the value of the property lost or destroyed is 154 between $10,000 and $50,000, the offense is a level 4 offense.

155 (iv) Where the value of the property lost or destroyed is 156 $10,000 or under, the offense is a level 3 offense.

157 In determining the appropriate offense seriousness level for a 158 staircased offense, the judge may consider any evidence received
159 during the proceedings, any victim impact statement, any presen-
160 tence report when the judge requests one, and, any other informa-
161 tion that the judge deems credible.

162 (b) When a statute provides for a more severe penalty upon a 163 second and subsequent conviction for an offense, the second or 164 subsequent offense is elevated 1 level on the offense seriousness 165 scale on the master crime list. Where the offense is at level 8, the 166 offender shall be moved over 1 cell to the right to the next more 167 serious criminal history group in the grid. When a defendant is 168 charged as a second or subsequent offender under the relevant 169 statute, the prior conviction or convictions that served as the basis 170 for the second or subsequent charge shall not be counted in deter-171 mining criminal history placement on the grid. Offenses that are 172 subject to a more severe penalty for second and subsequent con-173 viction are so designated in the master crime list.

174 (c) The factors affecting offenses staircased herein are sen-
175 tencing factors and are not intended to increase the maximum sen-176 tence for any staircased offense.

177 Section 5. There are 5 criminal history groups on the horizontal 178 axis of the sentencing guidelines grid as follows:—

179 (a) Criminal history group A, no/minor record, refers to a crim-
180 inal record that contains no prior predicate offenses of any kind;
181 or, 1 to 3 prior predicate offenses in any combination for offenses 182 in levels 1 or 2.

183 (b) Criminal history group B, moderate record, refers to a crim-184 inal record that contains 4 or more prior predicate offenses in any 185 combination for offenses in level 1 or 2; or, 1 or 2 prior predicate 186 offenses in any combination for offenses in level 3 or 4.

187 (c) Criminal history group C, serious record, refers to a crim-188 inal record that contains 3 to 5 prior predicate offenses in any 189 combination for offenses in level 3 or 4; or, 1 prior predicate 190 offense for offenses in level 5 or 6.

191 (d) Criminal history group D, violent or repetitive record, refers 192 to a criminal record that contains 6 to 8 prior predicate offenses in 193 any combination for offenses in level 3 or 4; or, 2 to 4 prior predi-

194 cate offenses in any combination for offenses in level 5 or 6; or, 1 195 prior predicate offense for offenses in level 7 to 9, inclusive.

196 (e) Criminal history group E, serious violent or serious repeti-197 tive record, refers to a criminal record that contains 9 or more
198 prior predicate offenses for offenses in level 3 or 4; or, 5 or more
199 prior predicate offenses for offenses in level 5 or 6; or, 2 or more 200 prior predicate offenses in any combination for offenses in level 7 201 to 9, inclusive.

202 Section 6. In determining placement in the appropriate criminal 203 history group on the sentencing guidelines grid, the following pro-204 visions shall apply:—

205 (a) Only those prior offenses which resulted in a predicate 206 offense shall be counted for criminal history placement on the 207 sentencing guidelines grid. All predicate offenses that occurred 208 prior to the present sentencing event shall be counted for criminal 209 history placement on the sentencing guidelines grid. The offense 210 seriousness level of each prior predicate offense shall be deter-
211 mined by reference to the version of the master crime list in effect 212 at the time of the sentencing event for the present offense.

213 (b) Multiple prior predicate offenses arising from the same 214 criminal conduct shall be counted as one prior predicate offense, 215 based on the most serious offense. There shall be a rebuttable pre-216 sumption that multiple prior predicate offenses that have the same 217 arraignment date shall be counted as 1 prior predicate offense, 218 based on the most serious offense. Multiple convictions with the 219 same arraignment date may each be counted separately for pur-
220 poses of criminal history placement on the sentencing guidelines
221 grid where each such predicate offense is not part of the same 222 criminal conduct. Multiple predicate offenses with different 223 arraignment dates may be counted as a single predicate offense for 224 purposes of criminal history placement on the sentencing guide-
225 lines grid where each such predicate offense was part of the same 226 criminal conduct.

227 (c) Adjudications of delinquency for offenses classified in 228 offense seriousness levels 5 through 9, inclusive, on the master 229 crime list shall be considered as convictions of the offenses
230 involved and counted for purposes of criminal history. Adjudica-231 tions of delinquency for offenses classified below level 5 shall not 232 be counted for purposes of aggravating factor for departure from

233 the sentencing guidelines range. Any continuance without a 234 finding may be considered in evaluating mitigating circumstances
235 pursuant to Section 7(b)(1)(A)(7) or aggravating circumstances
236 pursuant to Section 7(b)(1)(B)(8).

237 (d) Prior convictions in federal and other jurisdictions shall be 238 counted for criminal history purposes. The offense of prior con-239 viction shall be assigned to the same offense seriousness level as 240 the Massachusetts offense in the master crime list with the same 241 or substantially the same elements.

242 (e) Where the prior conviction is a staircased offense and the 243 offense seriousness level of the staircased offense is not apparent 244 from the criminal record, there is a rebuttable presumption that the 245 prior conviction is in the lowest staircased level for that offense in 246 the master crime list.

247 (f) The judge shall decide any material contested issues relating 248 to criminal history.

249 Section 7. Sentencing pursuant to the sentencing guidelines 250 grid shall be based on the offense or offenses of conviction and 251 the criminal history of the defendant. The offense seriousness 252 level for each offense of conviction shall be determined from the 253 master crime list. The appropriate level of staircased offenses
254 shall be determined by taking into account the relevant stircasing
255 factors set forth herein. The number and types of prior convictions 256 shall be determined in accordance with section 5 of this chapter to 257 determine the appropriate criminal history group for the offender.
258 The sentencing guidelines range shall be determined by identi-259 fying that grid cell where the seriousness level of the governing 260 offense on the vertical axis intersects with the classification of the 261 criminal history group on the horizontal axis.

262 (a) The sentencing judge may impose a sentence to incarcera-
263 tion within the sentencing guidelines range by imposing a max-
264 imum sentence from within the guideline range of the appropriate
265 grid cell. Unless otherwise noted herein, the minimum sentence 266 will always be two-thirds of the maximum sentence and will 267 establish the initial parole eligibility date. The sentencing judge 268 shall state both the maximum sentence and the parole eligibility 269 date at the time of sentencing. This applies to all sentences of 270 incarceration of 2 months or longer to houses of correction and all 271 sentences to the state prison. Where the maximum sentence of 272 incarceration to a house of correction is less than 2 months, the 273 minimum sentence need not be two-thirds of the maximum sen-

274 tence. Where the maximum sentence is selected from the guide-275 line range in the applicable grid cell, the sentence will be within 276 the guidelines and no written explanation is necessary.

277 (b) The sentencing judge may not impose a sentence above or 278 below the sentencing guidelines range unless the court finds, at 279 the time of sentencing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that 280 one or more aggravating or mitigating circumstances exist as pro-
281 vided in this chapter and that those circumstances constitute sub-282 stantial and compelling reasons for departure. The sentencing 283 judge shall set forth in writing reasons for departing from that 284 range on a sentencing statement, consistent with the provisions of 285 subsection (h) of chapter 211E. In imposing a sentence of incar-286 ceration that departs from the sentencing guidelines range, the 287 minimum sentence shall be two-thirds of the maximum sentence, 288 unless the maximum sentence is for 2 months or less. A sentence 289 that departs below the sentencing guidelines range may include a 290 sentence to any lesser term of incarceration or any intermediate 291 sanction. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall not 292 constitute a departure for a judge to impose the statutory max-
293 imum sentence on any defendant in Criminal History Group E.

294 The judge may, but shall not be required, to conduct a hearing 295 in determining aggravating or mitigating factors.

296 (1) The following lists mitigating and aggravating circum-
297 stances shall guide departures from the sentencing guidelines
298 range. The presence of any such circumstance may warrant depa-299 rture from the sentencing guidelines range. In determining mitiga-
300 tion or aggravation, the judge may consider any evidence received
301 during the proceedings; any victim impact statement; any presen-
302 tence report, when the judge requests one; and any other informa-
303 tion that the judge deems credible.

304 (A) The exclusive list of mitigating circumstances is as 305 follows:-

306 (1) The defendant was not the organizer or the instigator of the 307 criminal activity.

308 (2) The defendant was suffering from a mental or physical con-
309 dition that significantly reduced the culpability of the defendant 310 for the offense.

311 (3) The victim was an initiator, aggressor, or provoker of the 312 offense.

313 (4) The sentence was imposed in accordance with a jointly 314 agreed recommendation.

315 (5) The age of the defendant at the time of the offense.

316 (6) The defendant verifies current involvement in, or successful 317 completion of, a substance abuse or other treatment program that 318 began after the date of the offense.

319 (7) The criminal history group does not adequately reflect the 320 nature and extent of the defendant's prior criminal conduct.

321 (8) Extraordinary circumstances and facts, not listed in factors 322 1-7, exist that diminish the defendant's culpability or the gravity 323 of the offense.

324 (B) The exclusive list of aggravating circumstances is as 325 follows:—

326 (1) The victim was especially vulnerable due to age or physical 327 or mental disability.

328 (2) The victim was treated with particular cruelty.

329 (3) The defendant used position or status to facilitate commis-
330 sion of the offense, such as a position of trust, confidence or fidu-331 ciary relationship.

332 (4) The defendant was a leader in the commission of an offense 333 involving two or more criminal actors.

334 (5) The defendant committed the offense while on probation, on 335 parole, or during escape.

336 (6) The defendant has committed repeated offenses against the 337 same victim or there are multiple victims.

338 (7) The sentence was imposed in accordance with a jointly 339 agreed recommendation.

340 (8) The criminal history group does not adequately reflect the 341 nature and extent of the defendant's prior criminal conduct.

342 (9) Extraordinary circumstances facts, not listed in factors 1-7, 343 exist that exacerbate the defendant's culpability or the gravity of 344 the offense.

345 (c) When a defendant is convicted of multiple offenses arising 346 out of the same criminal conduct, the judge may impose concur-347 rent or consecutive sentences, subject to the following provisions.

348 The judge shall impose a consecutive sentence when the imposi-349 tion of a consecutive sentence is required by the terms of the 350 statute pertaining to a particular offense. The judge may impose 351 concurrent or consecutive sentences of incarceration in the house

352 of correction or the state prison for each offense where such incar-353 ceration is permitted by law, subject to the following limitation.
354 The judge may impose consecutive sentences to the state prison or 355 the house of correction by selecting a sentence from the guidelines 356 range in the applicable grid cell for each offense to be sentenced 357 consecutively. Any sentence imposed as concurrent or consecutive 358 to a governing offense may be for a period of incarceration, or for 359 a period of probation, which is less than the lower limit of the sen-360 tencing guidelines range contained in the applicable grid cell or 361 for any level of intermediate sanction, without constituting a 362 departure from the sentencing guidelines.

363 When a defendant is convicted of multiple offenses which arise
364 out of the same criminal conduct and there is a single or no
365 victim, the total of the consecutive sentence imposed may not 366 exceed the upper limit range of the sentencing guidelines range in 367 the grid cell of the governing offense. Where the total exceeds the 368 upper limit, it shall be considered a departure from the guidelines 369 and the judge is required to provide written reasons.

370 When a defendant is convicted of multiple offenses which arise
371 out of the same criminal conduct and there are multiple victims, 372 the total of the consecutive sentence imposed may not exceed two 373 times the upper limit range of the sentencing guidelines range in 374 the grid cell of the governing offense. Where the total exceeds two 375 times the upper limit, it shall be considered a departure from the 376 guidelines and the judge is required to provide written reasons.

377 Any court which accepts a plea of guilty or an admission to suf-
378 ficient facts, to a criminal offense, and the term of incarceration 379 for that offense is subject to a period of postincarceration supervi-380 sion pursuant to section seventeen of chapter 211G, shall inform 381 the defendant who is offering the plea, prior to acceptance, that 382 such plea shall result in the defendant being subject to post-con-383 viction supervision under the provision of that section.

384 Failure to inform the defendant that his plea may result in his 385 being subject to postincarceration supervision under the provi-
386 sions of that section shall not be grounds to vacate or invalidate 387 the plea.

388 Section 8. Sentencing guidelines for offenses with mandatory
389 minimum terms are as follows:—

390 (a) No departures below the mandatory minimum sentences for 391 firearms offenses in violation of paragraph (a), (c) or (d) of 392 section 10 or section 10E of chapter 269 are permitted. These enu-393 merated mandatory firearms offenses are not integrated into the 394 guidelines grid. The sentencing guidelines for these mandatory 395 firearms offenses are the mandatory sentencing provisions of the 396 existing statutes. The minimum term of incarceration shall be no 397 less than the mandatory minimum sentence provided in said para-
398 graph (a), (c) or (d) of said section 10 or said section 10E of said
399 chapter 269. The sentencing judge is required to impose a min-
400 imum and a maximum sentence, but the minimum sentence need 401 not be two-thirds of the maximum. For purposes of determining 402 the criminal history group for a defendant with prior mandatory 403 firearms convictions, the master crime list provides the offense
404 seriousness level corresponding to the sentencing guidelines grid 405 for each firearms offense with a mandatory minimum sentence.

406 (b) For purposes of this chapter, operating under the influence 407 offenses refer to offenses enumerated in the second paragraph of 408 section 23 of chapter 90, subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of sub-409 division (1) of section 24 of said chapter 90, and subparagraph (A) 410 of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of section 8 of chapter 90B.

411 No departures below any mandatory minimum sentences for 412 operating under the influence offenses are permitted.

413 These operating under the influence offenses are not integrated 414 into the guidelines grid.

415 The sentencing guidelines for these operating under the influence 416 offenses are the mandatory sentencing provisions of the existing 417 statutes. The minimum term of incarceration shall be no less than 418 any mandatory minimum sentence provided in said subparagraph (1)
419 of paragraph (a) of subdivision (1) of said section 24 of said chapter 420 90 and said subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of 421 said section 8 of said chapter 90B. The sentencing judge is required 422 to impose a minimum and a maximum sentence, but the minimum 423 sentence need not be two-thirds of the maximum.

424 For purposes of determining the criminal history group for a 425 defendant with prior convictions for operating under the influence 426 offenses, the master crime list provides the offense seriousness 427 level for each operating under the influence offense.

428 Nothing in this section shall be found to prohibit a sentence
429 pursuant to subparagraph (4) of said paragraph (a) of said subdivi-430 sion (1) of said section 24 of said chapter 90 or said subpara-
431 graph (A) of paragraph (3) of said subsection (a) of said section 8 432 of said chapter 90B.

433 (c) Offenses in violation of the controlled substances act.

434 (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of 435 an offense under paragraph

436 (c) of section 32A and section 32J of chapter 94C, the court
437 may impose a sentence pursuant to the sentencing guidelines 438 without regard to any mandatory minimum sentence that might 439 otherwise apply, if the court finds at sentencing that the following 440 mitigating circumstances apply. The following is the exclusive list 441 of mitigating conditions:—

442 (1) the criminal history of the defendant falls in criminal his-
443 tory group A or B in the sentencing guidelines grid;

444 (2) the defendant has no prior drug distribution and trafficking
445 convictions;

446 (3) the defendant did not use violence or credible threats of vio-
447 lence or possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon, or induce 448 another participant to do so, in connection with the offense;

449 (4) the offense did not result in the death or serious bodily
450 injury to any person;

451 (5) the defendant is a minor participant in the manufacture, dis-
452 tribution or sale of controlled substances;

453 (6) the defendant is not charged with an offense involving 454 minors.

455 The burden shall be on the defendant to prove the above miti-
456 gating conditions. The sentencing judge must find that these miti-457 gating conditions constitute a substantial and compelling reason to 458 depart from a mandatory minimum sentence in this case. The 459 commonwealth must be provided notice, the opportunity to be 460 heard, and the right to appeal. The departure hearing will be con-461 ducted after conviction has been entered, after trial or a plea.

462 The judge may not depart below the sentencing guidelines after 463 he has departed from the mandatory minimum scheme. If the 464 appropriate grid cell contains a sentencing option of incarceration 465 or intermediate sanctions, the court must impose incarceration,

466 except that the court may impose a sentence to intermediate sanc-
467 tions in grid cells 4A, 4B, and 5A.

468 The statute will not apply to any crime committed before the 469 date that the guidelines become effective.

470 Where the judge departs below the mandatory minimum sen-
471 tence and imposes an incarceration sentence within the guidelines 472 range, the minimum sentence shall be two-thirds of the maximum 473 sentence; the defendant shall be eligible for parole at the expira-474 tion of the minimum sentence; and, the defendant shall be eligible 475 for earned good time, work release, and other pre-release pro-
476 grams deemed appropriate by the correctional authority with cus-
477 tody responsibility, notwithstanding the provisions of section 32H 478 of chapter 94C.

479 Where the judge does not depart below the mandatory min-480 imum sentence the minimum sentence need not be two-thirds of 481 the maximum.

482 (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in the case of 483 all other offenses under c.94C, defendants shall be eligible for 484 parole at the expiration of two-thirds of the minimum sentence
485 imposed if the court finds at sentencing that all of the following 486 mitigating circumstances apply. The defendant shall also be eli-487 gible for earned good time, work release, and other pre-release 488 programs deemed appropriate by the correctional authority with 489 custodial responsibility, notwithstanding the provisions of section 490 32H of chapter 94C.

491 The following is the exclusive list of mitigating conditions:—

492 (1) the criminal history of the defendant falls in criminal his-
493 tory group A or B in the sentencing guidelines grid;

494 (2) the defendant has no prior drug distribution and trafficking
495 convictions;

496 (3) the defendant did not use violence or credible threats of vio-
497 lence or possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon, or induce 498 another participant to do so, in connection with the offense;

499 (4) the offense did not result in the death or serious bodily
500 injury to any person;

501 (5) the defendant is a minor participant in the manufacture, dis-
502 tribution or sale of controlled substances;

503 (6) the defendant is not charged with an offense involving 504 minors.

505 The burden shall be on the defendant to prove the above mitigating conditions. The sentencing judge must find that these mitigating conditions constitute a substantial and compelling reason to depart from a mandatory minimum sentence in this case. The commonwealth must be provided notice, the opportunity to be heard, and the right to appeal. The departure hearing will be conducted after conviction has been entered, after trial or a plea.

512 (d) Sentencing for any other crime that provides for a mandatory minimum sentence shall be pursuant to the mandatory provisions for that offense. To the degree that these offenses are included in the master crime list, it is for the purposes of calculating criminal history group only. They shall not be deemed to be guideline sentences. The minimum term of incarceration shall be no less than the mandatory minimum sentence provided in the statutes enumerated in this paragraph. The sentencing judge is required to impose a minimum and a maximum sentence, but the minimum sentence need not be two-thirds of the maximum.

522 The defendant shall be eligible for parole at the expiration of the minimum sentence. The defendant shall not be eligible for earned good time, work release, and other pre-release programs deemed appropriate by the correctional authority with custody responsibility, until the defendant has served the mandatory minimum sentence. At the time of sentencing, the judge shall impose a period of post incarceration supervision, as provided in section 5 of chapter 211E.

530 (e) For those offenses with a statutory minimum sentence, it shall not be considered a departure for the judge to impose a sentence within the sentencing guidelines range, even though the sentence may be below the statutory minimum sentence. Where the statutory minimum sentence exceeds the sentencing guidelines range, the imposition of the statutory minimum sentence shall not constitute a departure from the sentencing guidelines.

537 Section 9. A judge may not impose a sentence that exceeds the statutory maximum.

539 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it shall not constitute a departure for a judge to impose a sentence up to the statutory maximum sentence on any defendant in Criminal History Group E.

543 Section 10. When a district or municipal court judge is 544 imposing a sentence and the sentencing guidelines range in the 545 applicable grid cell exceeds the district and municipal court sen-
546 tencing jurisdiction of two and one-half years, the sentencing
547 guidelines range shall be an incarceration zone range of 20 to 30
548 months and it shall not constitute a departure from the sentencing 549 guidelines for a district or municipal court judge to impose a sen-550 tence of incarceration from within the 20 to 30 month sentencing 551 guidelines range.

552 Section 11. Guidelines for sentencing to intermediate sanctions, 553 as defined in section 1 of chapter 211F, are integrated into the sen-554 tencing guidelines grid in the discretionary zone or the interme-555 diate sanctions zone as described in section 2.

556 There are 4 levels of intermediate sanctions consistent with the 557 severity of the restrictions on personal liberty and the intensity of 558 supervision. The 4 levels of intermediate sanctions are integrated 559 as follows:—

560 (1) Level 1, financial accountability, which represents the level 561 of restriction and accountability that is typically associated with 562 administrative probation. It is primarily designed to monitor the 563 timely payment of restitution, fines, victim/witness fees, and the 564 like, by the offender.

565 (2) Level 2, standard probation supervision, under which the 566 offender is subject to weekly accountability of his whereabouts.
567 This represents the level of restriction and accountability that is 568 typically associated with standard probation supervision.

569 (3) Level 3, daily accountability, under which the offender is 570 subject to daily accountability of his whereabouts. Level 3 sanc-571 tions may include, but are not limited to, electronic monitoring, 572 daily reporting, reporting on demand, special curfew supervision, 573 and intensive probation supervision. This represents the level of 574 restriction and accountability that falls in between 24 hour restric-575 tion and standard probation.

576 (4) Level 4, 24 hour restriction, under which the defendant is 577 subject to 24 hour restriction and accountability of his where-578 abouts. Level 4 sanctions may include, but are not limited to, a 579 placement in a halfway house, inpatient alcohol and drug treat-
580 ment facility, home confinement, electronic monitoring and daily

581 reporting. This represents the maximum level or restriction and 582 accountability short of incarceration.

583 A sentence to an intermediate sanction shall be imposed as a 584 condition of probation, consistent with the provisions of para-
585 graph (c) of section 3 of chapter 211F. Conditions of probation, 586 including, but not limited to, random drug and alcohol testing, 587 substance abuse counseling, financial restitution and the payment
588 of fines are available at every level. The length of the probation 589 period that may be imposed upon conviction shall be consistent 590 with the provisions of section 87 of chapter 276. The sentencing 591 judge shall specify the intermediate sanction level. The super-592 vising probation officer has the discretion to move a probation 593 down in level or levels in appropriate circumstances, without judi-594 cial consultation, consistent with any special conditions or dura-595 tion of probation specified by the judge. A reduction in the 596 intermediate sanction level by a probation officer shall not go 597 below the guideline levels set forth in the grid cell in which the 598 offender was sentenced.

599 Section 12. The sentencing guidelines do not apply to a proba-
600 tion revocation hearing. In imposing a sentence at a probation 601 revocation hearing, the judge has the discretion to impose any 602 sentence up to the statutory maximum. When imposing a sentence
603 of incarceration, the judge shall impose both a minimum sentence 604 and a maximum sentence and the minimum sentence must be two-605 thirds of the maximum sentence.

606 Section 13. A sentence to a house of correction shall not be sus-607 pended in whole, but a sentence to a house of correction may be 608 suspended in part to permit the imposition of a split sentence. In 609 imposing a split sentence, a judge shall impose a minimum and a 610 maximum term as provided by paragraph (a) of section 6 and shall 611 specify the period of incarceration to be served in the house of 612 correction. The judge shall also specify the term of probation to 613 be served subsequent to the period of incarceration.

614 Section 14. When appropriate, a judge shall order fines or resti-
615 tution or both as part of any sentence. Restitution to the victim 616 shall be a priority of the judge at the time of sentencing, regard-617 less of whether the offender is incarcerated.

618 Section 15. In sentencing a defendant after trial or after accep-619 tance of a guilty plea pursuant to either Rule 12 of the Rules of

620 Criminal Procedure or Rule 4(c) of the District/Municipal Court
621 Rules of Criminal Procedure, the court shall comply with the pro-
622 visions of Rule 28 of the Massachusetts Rules of Criminal Pro-
623 cture. The judge shall allow both parties to be heard at sentencing 624 on all sentencing issues. In determining the sentence, the judge 625 may rely on any evidence received during the proceedings; any 626 victim impact statement; any presentence report, when the judge 627 requests one; and, any other information the judge deems credible.
628 A sentencing statement shall be completed in accordance with 629 paragraph (h) of section 3 of chapter 211E for each defendant
630 being sentenced. The sentencing judge shall sign the completed
631 sentencing statement and a copy shall be submitted to the Sen-
632 tencing Commission as provided in paragraph (h) of said section 3
633 of said chapter 211E.

634 Section 16. The defendant or the commonwealth may appeal a 635 sentence imposed pursuant to sentencing guidelines, to the extent 636 an appeal is permitted in accordance with the provisions of section 637 4 of chapter 211E. Neither costs nor attorney's fees may be 638 assessed against the Office of the Attorney General or a district 639 attorney's office in connection with a trial or appeal of a sentence.

1 SECTION 2. Section 3 of chapter 211E of the General Laws, as 2 so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out lines 5-18 and 3 inserting in place thereof the following:— (2) The sentencing 4 guidelines shall be used by the district and superior courts of the 5 commonwealth, and the Boston municipal court, in imposing a 6 sentence in every criminal court.

1 SECTION 3. Said section 3 of said chapter 211E, as so
2 appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out lines 27-61.

1 SECTION 4. Said section 3 of said chapter 211E, as so
2 appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after line 89 the 3 following:—

4 The commission shall act consistently with the need for flexi-5 bility, expeditious administration, case-flow management and 6 resources of the trial court departments in drafting amendments to 7 the sentencing guidelines. The commission shall assure that 8 amendments to the sentencing guidelines are neutral as to the 9 race, sex, national origin, creed, religion and socio-economic 10 status of offenders. For every new criminal offense enacted under 11 the laws of the commonwealth, the commission shall propose

12 amendments to the guidelines that establish: (A) the circum-
13 stances, if any, under which the imposition of intermediate sanc-14 tions may be proper; (B) intermediate sanction for those whom 15 imprisonment may not be appropriate; and (C) a target sentence 16 for offenders for whom an intermediate sanction may not be 17 appropriate based on a combination of reasonable offense and 18 offender characteristics for each offense, and the adequacy of the 19 commonwealth's criminal justice and public safety resources.

1 SECTION 5. Said section 3 of said chapter 211E, as so
2 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out lines 90-120.

1 SECTION 6. Said section 3 of said chapter 211E, as so
2 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out lines 121-132.

1 SECTION 7. Said section 3 of said chapter 211E, as so 2 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out lines 159-168 and 3 inserting in place thereof the following:— for every sentence 4 imposed.

1 SECTION 8. Subsection (f) of section 3 of said chapter 211E,
2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding the following sen-
3 tence:— The commission shall not later than June 1st and annu-4 ally thereafter report its determination of the type and amount of 5 correctional resources needed and the analysis resulting in such 6 determination to the aforementioned persons, the house and senate
7 committees on ways and means and the joint committee on crim-
8 inal justice.

1 SECTION 9. Section 4 of said chapter 211E, as so appearing, is 2 hereby amended by deleting said section in its entirety, and 3 inserting in place thereof the following:—

4 Section 4. (a) A defendant may file a notice of appeal for 5 review of an otherwise final sentence that imposes a period of 6 incarceration if:
7 (1) the sentence was imposed in violation of law; or

8 (2) the sentence was imposed as a result of an incorrect placement
9 in the sentencing grid; or

10 (3) the departure upward from the applicable guideline range
11 was not supported by the established existence that one or more
12 aggravating circumstances existed and that such circumstances 13 constituted substantial and compelling reasons for departure; or

14 (4) the sentence was imposed for an offense for which there is 15 no sentencing guideline and is plainly unreasonable.

16 (b) The commonwealth may appeal an otherwise final sentence 17 that imposes a period of incarceration if:

18 (1) the sentence was imposed in violation of law; or

19 (2) the sentence was imposed as a result of an incorrect placement
20 in the sentencing grid; or

21 (3) the departure downward from the applicable guideline range
22 was not supported by the established existence that one or more
23 mitigation circumstances existed and that such circumstances con-24 stituted substantial and compelling reasons for departure; or

25 (4) the sentence was imposed for an offense for which there is 26 no sentencing guideline and is plainly unreasonable.

27 (c) In the case of a plea agreement entered into pursuant to Rule 28 12 of the Massachusetts Rule of Criminal Procedure:

29 (1) if a defendant may not appeal a sentence unless the sentence
30 imposed is greater than the sentence prescribed by the sentencing 31 guidelines; and

32 (2) the commonwealth may not appeal a sentence unless the 33 sentence imposed is less than the sentence prescribed than the sen-34 tencing guidelines.

35 (3) a sentence imposed by the court in accordance with the re-36 ommendation of either the defendant or the commonwealth may 37 not be appealed by the party which made the recommendation;
38 and a sentence imposed in accordance with a jointly-agreed rec-39 ommendation may not be appealed by either the defendant or the 40 commonwealth.

41 (d) Appeals from sentences imposed under the sentencing
42 guidelines shall be conducted in accordance with the Massachu-43 sets Rules of Appellate Procedure.

44 (e) If imprisonment is imposed, the entry of an appeal under the 45 provisions of this section shall not stay the execution of the sen-46 tence unless the judge imposing it, upon a showing of a reason-

47 able likelihood of success, finds that execution of the sentence 48 should be stayed pending final determination of the appeal.

49 (f) The provisions of section 28A and 28B of chapter 278 of the 50 General Laws shall not apply to any offense committed on or after 51 the effective date of this chapter.

1 SECTION 10. Chapter 211E of the General Laws, as so appear-
2 ing, is hereby amended by adding the following:—

3 Section 5. Post-Incarceration Supervision. For all sentences to 4 incarceration where the maximum sentence within the sentencing
5 range is for a period of twelve months or more which are imposed 6 in accordance with the sentencing guidelines as established in this 7 chapter, including minimum mandatory sentences, there shall be 8 imposed a period of post-incarceration supervision. The period of 9 post-incarceration supervision shall be imposed as follows: a 10 period of six months for a sentence with a maximum term greater 11 than or equal to twelve months but less than thirty months; a 12 period of twelve months for a sentence with a maximum greater 13 than or equal to thirty months but less than sixty months; a period
14 of twenty-four months for a sentence with a maximum term
15 greater than or equal to sixty months. The total term of incarcera-16 tion for the offense plus any additional commitment for a viola-17 tion of a condition of post-incarceration supervision that does not 18 otherwise constitute a new offense, shall not be greater than the 19 maximum term fixed by statute for the governing offense. During 20 the period of post-incarceration supervision, the prisoner shall be 21 subject to the supervision of the Parole Board under such terms
22 and conditions as established by the Board.

23 The post-incarceration supervision period shall be deemed 24 completed if the prisoner completes the sentence to incarceration 25 while on parole, if the prisoner is granted a certificate of termina-
26 tion of sentence pursuant to G.L. c. 127, section 130A, if the pris-27 oner is subject upon release from custody to lifetime parole 28 pursuant to section 133C of chapter 127, or if upon completion of 29 the sentence the prisoner is immediately committed to a sentence 30 of incarceration, to the custody of any other state or federal 31 authority, or to the custody of immigration authorities. The post-32 incarceration supervision shall be stayed for any period the pris-
33 oner is in custody pursuant to any order of custody under chapter

34 123A. The post-incarceration supervision period shall be deemed 35 completed upon commitment pursuant to section 14 of chapter
36 123A. In all other circumstances, the period of post-incarceration 37 supervision shall commence upon discharge from the sentence.

38 During the period of post-incarceration supervision, the pris-39 oner shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the parole board in 40 accordance with section 130 of chapter 127. The prisoner may be 41 supervised in another jurisdiction in accordance with sections 42 151A through 151L of chapter 127 and shall be considered to be 43 on parole for the purposes of such supervision. After a hearing 44 and for good cause, the parole board may terminate the period of 45 post-incarceration supervision at any time before completion.

46 An individual who violates a condition of post-incarceration 47 supervision shall be subject to the provisions of section 149 of 48 chapter 127. Upon a first violation, the prisoner may be incarcera-49 ted for a period no greater than two months or the maximum 50 remaining period of post-incarceration supervision, whichever is 51 less, if such violation does not otherwise constitute a criminal 52 offense. Upon a second violation, the prisoner may be incarcera-53 ted for a period no greater than six months or the maximum 54 remaining period of post-incarceration supervision, whichever is 55 less, if such violation does not otherwise constitute a criminal 56 offense. Upon a third or subsequent violation the prisoner, may be 57 incarcerated for a period no greater than twelve months or the 58 maximum remaining period of post-incarceration supervision,
59 whichever is less, if such violation does not otherwise constitute a 60 criminal offense. If such violation otherwise constitutes a criminal 61 offense, said period of incarceration shall be served on and after 62 any sentence received for commission of the new offense. In the 63 event that the prisoner has been convicted of more than one 64 offense, post-incarceration supervision may be imposed if the 65 maximum sentence on all offenses has not been served.

66 Notwithstanding Section 23 of Chapter 279, where the defen-67 dant is sentenced to the house of correction, the total term of 68 incarceration for any offense plus any additional commitment for 69 violation of a condition or conditions of post-incarceration super-70 vision pursuant to section 17 of chapter 211G shall not exceed the 71 longest term fixed by law for the punishment of the crime of 72 which the prisoner has been convicted or if the defendant is

73 serving a sentence after being convicted of only one offense, two 74 and one-half years, whichever is less.

1 SECTION 11. Section 32H of chapter 94C, as appearing in 2 the 2002 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in 3 line 13, the word “parole,” and is hereby further amended by 4 inserting at the end of said section the following paragraph:—

5 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, a 6 person convicted of violating subsection (c) of section 32A, para-
7 graphs (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (a) of section 32E, paragraphs 8 (1), (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (b) of section 32E, paragraphs (1), 9 (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (c) of sections 32E and 32J of chap-10 ter 94C of the General Laws shall be eligible for parole after 11 serving two-thirds of the maximum term of imprisonment
12 imposed to a state prison or after serving one-half of the max-13 imum term of imprisonment imposed to a house of correction if 14 the court finds at sentencing that all of the following mitigating 15 circumstances apply. The defendant shall also be eligible for 16 earned good time, work release, and other pre-release programs 17 deemed appropriate by the correctional authority with custodial 18 responsibility, notwithstanding the provisions of section 32H of 19 chapter 94C.

20 Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (c) of section 21 32A, paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (a) of section 32E, 22 paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (b) of section 32E,
23 paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (c) of sections 32E
24 and 32J of chapter 94C of the General Laws, or any other general 25 or special law to the contrary, persons serving mandatory min-
26 imum sentences in a state prison or house of correction for viola-27 tions of the above referenced sections as of January 1, 2006 shall 28 be eligible for parole after serving two-thirds or one-half of the 29 maximum sentence imposed respectively; provided however, that 30 such defendant seek review of his sentence and the court finds 31 that at the time the defendant was sentenced all of the following 32 mitigating circumstances applied.

33 The following is the exclusive list of mitigating conditions:—
34 (1) the criminal history of the defendant falls in criminal his-
35 tory group A or B in the sentencing guidelines grid;
36 (2) the defendant has no prior drug distribution and trafficking
37 convictions;

38 (3) the defendant did not use violence or credible threats of vio-
39 lence or possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon, or induce 40 another participant to do so, in connection with the offense;

41 (4) the offense did not result in the death or serious bodily
42 injury to any person;

43 (5) the defendant is a minor participant in the manufacture, dis-
44 tribution or sale of controlled substances;

45 (6) the defendant is not charged with an offense involving 46 minors.

47 A defendant who fails to meet said mitigating circumstances
48 shall not be eligible for parole at two-thirds of the maximum sen-
49 tence imposed for state prison sentence or at one-half of the max-50 imum sentence imposed for a house of correction sentence, and 51 shall serve the full sentence of imprisonment imposed and shall be 52 subject to post release supervision as set forth in section 5 of 53 chapter 211E.

1 SECTION 12. Section 130 of chapter 127 of the General Laws, 2 as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the first sen-
3 tence and inserting in place thereof the following three sen-
4 tences:— No prisoner shall be granted a parole permit merely as a 5 reward for good conduct but only if the parole board is of the 6 opinion that there is a reasonable probability that, if such prisoner 7 is released, in light of appropriate conditions and community 8 supervision, he will live and remain at liberty without violating 9 the law and that his release is compatible with the welfare of 10 society. In making this determination, the board shall consider 11 whether, during the period of incarceration, the prisoner has par-
12 ticipated in available work opportunities and education or treat-13 ment programs, and demonstrated good behavior. The board shall 14 also consider whether risk reduction programs made available 15 through collaboration with criminal justice agencies would mini-16 mize the probability of the prisoner re-offending once released.

1 SECTION 13. Section 136 of said chapter 127, as so appearing,
2 is hereby amended by adding the following sentence:— The 3 parole board shall have the option to (1) grant parole, subject to 4 the conditions or limitations as deemed appropriate, (2) deny
5 parole, subject to reconsideration at a specified date with recom-

6 mendations for interim program participation or treatment, or (3) 7 deny parole.

1 SECTION 14. Section 5 of chapter 211F of the General Laws, 2 as appearing in the 2000 Official Edition, is hereby amended by 3 inserting after the word “justice”, in line 3, the following 4 words:— , the house and senate committees on ways and means.

1 SECTION 15. The sentencing commission as established by 2 chapter 211E of the General Laws shall monitor the implementa-3 tion of the sentencing guidelines for a period of 3 years after the 4 effective date of this act. The sentencing commission shall review 5 the application of the concurrent or consecutive sentencing provi-
6 sions and the mandatory sentences in the prosecution of controlled 7 substances for fair application of said sections consistent with the 8 spirit and intent of this act.

1 SECTION 16. The provisions of this act shall take effect on 2 January 1, 2006 and the sentencing guidelines and other related 3 provisions contained herein shall apply to all felonies and misde-
4 meanors committed on or after said date. All offenses committed 5 prior to January 1, 2006 shall be governed by the laws, including, 6 but not limited to, those on sentencing, parole, and probation, in 7 effect at the time the offense is committed.
